Importer Responsibilities

- Importers are legally obligated to exercise reasonable care and due diligence to ensure that goods produced with forced labor do not enter their supply chains
- Importers must factor forced labor into their companies' risk assessments and corporate compliance program(s)

CBP Responsibilities

- CBP investigates allegations to prevent goods made with forced labor from entering into U.S. commerce
- CBP works with partner agencies through initiatives such as the USMCA Forced Labor Enforcement Task Force to identify goods at risk of being produced with forced labor

In February 2016, Congress eliminated the “consumptive demand” loophole as part of the Trade Facilitation and Trade Enforcement Act of 2015 prohibiting imports of forced labor goods into the U.S. and authorizing CBP to bar imports made with forced labor from entry under 19 U.S.C. § 1307.
